

10 Great Reasons to Join the Camelot Chapter of ABWA

1. Anne-Marie Brandt

Owner/President, TeamBrandt Marketing
Motto: "A Casual Approach to SERIOUS Marketing"

2. Tess Bockes

Author, Activist, Speaker
Motto: "Helping Improve Our Community, Assisting People in Improving Their Lives"

3. Diane C. Brokenshire

Vice President,
New Cumberland Borough Council
Treasurer, West Shore Recreation Commission
Treasurer, ABWA Camelot Chapter

4. Kathy George

Owner, Cedar Cliff Subway
President, ABWA Camelot Chapter Outlook: "I firmly believe that being involved in my community has helped the success of my business."

5. Shelley Hoachlander

Office Manager, Neill Funeral Homes,
Camp Hill and Harrisburg Outlook: "ABWA is a great organization for women in business because it offers networking opportunities, education and support to women in all levels of workforce."

6. Mary Johnson

Retired, IBM - now working for IBM Supplier,
Senior Parts Planner
ABWA Member for 17 years
Former President, Vice President and Secretary, ABWA Camelot Chapter

7. Kimberly A. Lutes, AAMS

Financial Advisor, Waddell and Reed
Motto: "Investing, with a plan."

8. Denise Shade

State Correctional Institution, Camp Hill
ABWA Member for 17 years
Secretary, ABWA Camelot Chapter
2010 Outstanding Performance Award,
State Department of Corrections

9. Abeer and Tania Srouji

Owners, Eye Candy
Vice President,
ABWA Camelot Chapter (Tania)
Assistant VP, Metro Bank (Abeer)
"You don't have to pay a million bucks to look like a million bucks." Eye Candy is Fun, Fabulous and most importantly affordable
Jewelry and Purses with strong community involvement.
www.eyecandyaccessories.com

10. Debra L. Yates

Licensed Aesthetician, Business Owner, Skin Rejuvenation & Laser Center at Plastic Surgery Center in Camp Hill
Past President, ABWA Camelot Chapter
ABWA's 2010 Top Ten Business Women

